

Author Bio

1999 – B.A. in Elementary Education from Harding University

2011 - 1st Place White County Creative Writers' Conference First Chapter Contest

2012 – Debut novel, A Light in the Darkness, is released along with its sequel, To Light the Path.

2013 – Seen and Wandered, two books in a new YA fantasy series, will be released in the spring.

President - Fiction Writers of Central Arkansas

Featured Author – Arkansas Literary Festival

Heather Sutherlin lives in Arkansas with her husband and three children. She is the author of A Light in the Darkness and Seen, both fantasy adventures for young adults. She loves all things creative and enjoys the worlds she dreams up, longing to live the adventure alongside her characters. When she's not at her writing desk, she is busy exploring and learning with her children or cooking big, elaborate meals in the kitchen with her husband.

You can see more of Heather at her website, HeatherSutherlin.com

Or, email her at HSutherlin@gmail.com

About the Author

Heather Sutherlin lives in Arkansas with her husband and three children. She loves all things creative and enjoys the worlds she dreams up, longing to live the adventure alongside her characters. When she's not at her writing desk, she is busy exploring and learning with her children or cooking big elaborate meals in the kitchen with her husband. You can see more of Heather at her website, HeatherSutherlin.com